SENATE.

SATURDAY, March 9, 1901.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. W. H. MILBURN, D. D.

The Secretary proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

Mr. SIMON. I ask the unanimous consent of the Senate that the further reading of the Journal be dispensed with.

Mr. MONEY. I object.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Objection is made. The Secretary will proceed with the reading.

The Secretary resumed and concluded the reading of the Journal.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Without objection, the Journal will stand approved.

SWEARING IN OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE.

Mr. ALLISON. As a question of privilege, I ask that the oath be now administered to the President pro tempore of the Senate.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The President pro tempore will please advance to the desk and take the oath.

Mr. FRYE was escorted to the Vice-President's desk by Mr. ALLISON, and the oath prescribed by law was administered to him.

SENATOR FROM OREGON.

Mr. SIMON. Hon. John H. Mitchell, who was chosen by the legislature of the State of Oregon a Senator from that State for the term commencing March 4, 1901, is present. His credentials have heretofore been filed, and I ask that the oath of office be now administered to him.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. It will be so administered.

Mr. Mitchell was escorted to the Vice-President's desk by Mr. SIMON.

[Manifestations of applause in the galleries.]

The VICE-PRESIDENT. If there is any applause the Sergeant-at-Arms will be directed to clear the galleries.

The oath prescribed by law having been administered to Mr. MITCHELL, he took his seat in the Senate.

Sundry messages in writing from the President were communicated to the Senate by Mr. O. L. PRUDEN, one of his secretaries.

COMMITTEE ON INTEROCEANIC CANALS.

Mr. MORGAN. Mr. President, I wish to ask the consent of the Senate, and to make a brief statement before I present the request.

The Senator from Oregon, Hon. Mr. McBride, who has just retired from this body, was a member of the Committee on Interoceanic Canals, and a very highly valued member of that committee. His successor, Mr. MITCHELL, who has just been sworn in, has been a long time familiar with that subject and perhaps has given as much study to it as any person in this country. Inasmuch as the vacancy exists, which ought to be filled, for reasons that I need not now state to the Senate, I thought I would ask the Senate that by unanimous consent Mr. MITCHELL might be put upon that committee as a member, vice Mr. McBride, who has retired from the Senate.

I wish to say just one word more. I do not know of any arrangement which has been made about the committees, and I do not propose to interfere with any arrangement that is made or any that is likely to be made. I merely make this an exceptional case on account of the peculiarity of the circumstances.

I therefore ask unanimous consent that Mr. MITCHELL be placed upon the Committee on Interoceanic Canals.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The Senator from Alabama asks unanimous consent that the vacancy upon the Committee on Interoceanic Canals be filled by the appointment of the Senator from Oregon [Mr. MITCHELL]. Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and the vacancy is so filled.

Mr. HOAR. Mr. President, for very obvious reasons no one objected to the request of the Senator from Alabama, but I feel bound to say that the repetition of such a request from a single Senator, without consultation with either side of the Chamber, would give rise to great inconvenience, and if another such request be made from any quarter I shall feel bound to object to it.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The presentation of petitions and memorials is in order.

PETITIONS.

Mr. FOSTER of Washington presented the petition of E. F. Knight and sundry other citizens of Vancouver, Wash., and the petition of W. J. Stoddard and sundry other citizens of Pleasant Prairie, Wash., praying for the enactment of legislation to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors, opium, and firearms in the New Hebrides and other islands of the Pacific; which were referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. HOAR presented the petition of H. F. Janes and 23 other citizens of Worcester, Mass., praying for the enactment of legislation to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors, opium, and firearms in the New Hebrides and other islands of the Pacific; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

He also presented the petition of F. O. Cunningham and 51 other citizens of Massachusetts, praying for the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution to prohibit polygamy; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. WETMORE presented a petition of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Rhode Island, praying for the enactment of legislation to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the New Hebrides and other islands of the Pacific; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

THOMAS G. GARRETT.

Mr. JONES of Arkansas, from the Committee to Audit and Control the Contingent Expenses of the Senate, to whom was referred the following resolution, submitted yesterday by Mr. MORGAN, reported it without amendment; and it was considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the sum of $300 be paid by the Secretary of the Senate to Thomas G. Garrett, out of the contingent fund of the Senate, for compiling the debates in the House of Representatives and the Senate, the reports of committees, and other papers and documents, at the request of the Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals.

TAXATION IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Mr. McMILLAN. I am directed by the Committee on the District of Columbia, to whom was referred the resolution submitted by the Senator from New Hampshire [Mr. GALLINGER] on the 6th instant, to report it with an amendment, and I ask for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on the District of Columbia is hereby directed to investigate and report to the Senate the system of taxation in vogue in the District of Columbia and whether any portion of the tax laws contained in the organic act for said District is inoperative by reason of defective legislation; and also what changes, if any, should be made in existing law in order to secure an equitable adjustment of the burdens of taxation. For this purpose the committee is authorized to send for persons and papers, and to sit during the recess of Congress. The necessary expenses of said investigation shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The amendment reported by the committee will be stated.

The SECRETARY. After the word "Congress," in line 10, strike out the remainder of the resolution, in the following words:

The necessary expenses of said investigation shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the present consideration of the resolution?

Mr. BLACKBURN. Mr. President, I dislike to object, but this is a very grave question that the Senator from Michigan is opening here. In the absence of an extra session, it will be next December before we are here together again. I have been in years past identified with the form of government of this District and with the system of taxation under which the people of the District now live. I do not think this inquiry ought to be undertaken in front of an eight months' vacation. I think the Senate should be here when the inquiry is in progress. It involves too much to the people of the District not to be carefully guarded. While I have every confidence in the capacity and the purpose of the District Committee, I am forced, for the reason stated, to object to going into this work.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. Objection is made.

Mr. HOAR. It is in order, is it not?

Mr. McMILLAN. I have just reported it from the committee.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The resolution will be placed on the Calendar.

PRINTING OF REVENUE ACT.

Mr. ALDRICH submitted the following resolution; which was considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That there be printed for the use of the Senate 5,000 copies of the internal-revenue act of March 2, 1901, with marginal notes and index, and with suitable paper covers, to be prepared under the direction of the Committee on Finance, 3,500 copies of which shall be delivered to the Senate folding room, 1,000 copies to the Committee on Finance, and 500 copies to the Senate document room.

LIEUT. COL. H. O. S. HEISTAND.

Mr. HAWLEY submitted the following resolution; which was considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs have leave to sit during the coming recess of Congress and to make the investigation ordered by Senate resolution No. 583, agreed to during the second session of the Fifty-sixth Congress, and to act by full committee or subcommittee, and to administer oaths by subcommittee, and summon witnesses, and send for persons and papers.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The Chair lays before the Senate a resolution coming over from the preceding day, which will be read.

The Secretary read the resolution submitted yesterday by Mr. HOAR, as follows:

Resolved, That a committee to consist of two Senators be appointed by the Chair to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that, unless he may have some further communication to make, the Senate is ready to adjourn without day.

The VICE-PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to; and the Vice-President appointed Mr. HOAR and Mr. COCKRELL as the committee.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Mr. HALE. I move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of executive business.

The motion was agreed to; and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business. After one hour and twenty-two minutes spent in executive session the doors were reopened.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. HOAR and Mr. COCKRELL, the committee appointed to wait upon the President of the United States, appeared at the bar of the Senate; and

Mr. HOAR said: Mr. President, the committee who were directed by the Senate to inform the President that if he have no further communication to make the Senate is ready to adjourn have discharged that duty, and were requested by the President to inform the Senate that he has no further communication to make, and to convey to the Senators his cordial wishes for their welfare and his hope that they may have a happy return to their homes.

Mr. ALLISON. I move that the Senate do now adjourn without day.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 1 o'clock and 53 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned without day.

NOMINATIONS.
